History

A little background of our history

Ripon Minster, as it was known until it became a cathedral in 1836, lost most of its revenues in the 1530/40s at the Reformation and was left with only poorly educated vicars to look after the extensive parish of Ripon. But in 1604 the Minster was granted a new charter by King James I, adding a dean and six canons, one of whom was to reside in Ripon, so it was necessary for a suitable residence to be provided. The Old Deanery was the home of the Dean of Ripon until, it appears, at the end of World War II.

There are several stories of secret passages between The Old Deanery, the neighbouring Ripon Cathedral and nearby Fountains Abbey - however none have been verified or found to date.

The Old Deanery nowadays is an award-winning hotel, bar & restaurant, housing 11 bespoke bedrooms found by ascending the stunning 17th century oak staircase. Sitting in the shadow of Ripon Cathedral, the location and history of the building attracts weddings, events & conferences year-round. If you'd like any further information on how The Old Deanery can become your perfect wedding or event venue, please just ask!
